

The 2024 William Wolfram Student Award in Liturgical Art

The Center for Church Music
Concordia University Chicago
7400 Augusta Street
River Forest, IL 60305

The Center for Church Music invites applications for the William Wolfram Student Award in Liturgical Art. Offered biennially beginning in 2022, the award's name honors William Wolfram, Professor Emeritus of Art at Concordia University Nebraska, whose artwork graces church sanctuaries throughout the United States, for his distinguished service in the Church.

The William Wolfram Student Award in Liturgical Art recognizes student artists who evidence:

- commitment to Christian faith and practice,
- excellence in artistic expression,
- commitment to the creation of art purposed for use within worship settings.

Undergraduate or graduate students currently enrolled in Lutheran colleges, universities, and seminaries located within the United States and Canada are eligible to apply for consideration. Recent graduates may also apply.

A panel of judges from various geographic areas will consider the applications and select the award recipient.

The recipient will receive a certificate and monetary award of $1,000, to be presented at the annual Lectures in Church Music at Concordia University in Chicago, IL (travel assistance will be provided to the recipient).

In order to be considered, applications must be submitted as a single PDF attachment emailed to Barry.Bobb@CUChicago.edu no later than 12 midnight on May 1, 2024.

Please provide quality images of your work(s) with one full image and 1 or 2 detail images along with title, media, dimensions, year created, and anything else you would like the judges to know about your work and how the Christian faith intersects with your art studies and/or practice.
