

Saved by a Touch

for SATB choir acappella with optional Sop. and bar. solo

Walter J. Bartling
after Mark 5: 25-34

Paul Bouman

Sop. solo or a few voices
Freely and thoughtfully ($\text{♩} = \text{about } 120$)

1. Who was it, Lord, that touched you? Who ven-tured from the crowd?
mf

Who was it brushed your gar-ment At risk of shame un-told?

S A

Let it be me, Lord Je-sus, Who dares the touch of faith.

T
B

Let me move in your shad-ow Through bound' - ry lands of death.

CDS Brand
No. 51 12 Stave

© copyright Paul Bouman
3/16/93

Baritone Solo or a few voices

2. Who was it felt your pow-er Trans-mit-ted by a touch?

Who, Lord, in gen-tly brush-ing, Re-sist-ed need to clutch?

Choir

May I to-day, Lord, bold-ly, In pres-ence of your saints, Touch you by proud con-fes-sion And bare my heart's com-plaints.

mp mf p

mf

Choir in unison

3. Who was it heard the promise of health in sins forgiven?

mf

Who found your garment's hem-line Con-vey the grace of heaven?

To-day, let it be me, Lord, Who feels your saving power.

f Let me - faith simply yielded - Find heal-ing in this hour.

rall.

rall.

p

rall.

