

A HARVARD CHRISTMAS HYMN

Text: J.C. Leonard, 1861

Krentz

Tune: Paul Manz, 1990

Star, that rose on Beth - 'hem Ju - dah, What has dimmed thy
 On this night what an - sw'ring voice - s Come to list' - ning
 Not with glad - ness but with sor - row Man - y thoughts come
 But we hope, and still will la - bor Wait - ing, Lord, thy Star of Beth - 'hem! Guide of Wise Men! Gild our dark - ness light to - day? Has the peace that it pro - claimed there Pa - les - tine? From the peace she gave the na - tions, winged to - night; Though a Fes - ti - val - we - hon - or, prom - ised time, When, strife ceas - ing, all the na - tions in - to day! And thy beams un - dimmed, O lend us;

Van - - - ished from the earth a - - - way. -
 Comes there no re - sponse - sub - - - time. -
 Though the lamps are burn - ing bright.
 Shall, through Christ, be whol - ly Thine.
 That we too may find the Way.

And Amen